

It's wonderful, we're getting closer to spring everyday. What an exciting time to be thinking about travel ideas!

BIG NEWS...

The big news is that I have incorporated my travel company, and now all of our travel brands are registered under "The Travel Broker Group Inc." -- The Travel Broker, Today's Woman Traveller and JB & A Custom Holidays -- each having a unique place in this wonderful industry. We thank you for your patience during the change-over and re-registration.

You, our clients and readers have been very active and vocal too! You are letting us know what you are looking for in your travel experiences. You have been telling us that you want to get out there and not only explore new and interesting destinations, but that you also want to learn and interact with the local communities that we visit. We are striving to make that possible for our travellers by having "Options of Discovery" in each location we visit over and above what is shown in the included itinerary (see what I mean by looking at the 2016 Girls Return to Bali itinerary).

NEW TRAVEL TRENDS...

Travel is a wonderful way to celebrate a milestone in your life. I celebrated my 60th birthday with a great group in Bali in 2012 and must say it was my most memorable milestone birthday! Hmm.....I must come up with an exciting new location for my 65th !! How about you? Have you got a milestone coming up ? We'd love to join in the celebration!

Have you ever felt you just want to escape for Christmas to someplace special? Then why not join us as we experience a European-style, magical Christmas in Quebec City. It's here that we'll discover the fascinating historic, cultural and culinary treasures of Old Quebec City.

As a new tour feature in 2017, we will be incorporating all gratuities into our tours. This is already the case with our ever popular Girls to Greece tour this fall.

We are finding that more of you than ever are taking advantage of premium economy seats and even business class for long-haul flights, and more and more are opting to arrive a day prior to a tour start date. It's so nice to have a day to decompress and acclimatize to your new destination. Then you're relaxed and ready to indulge in the tour activities.

We are happy to assist to arrange transfers and additional nights in the start point or end point of our tours.

CANADIAN $ AT PAR

Until Feb 29, Azamara Cruise line is offering a fantastic deal - Canadian \$ at par for many of their cruises. Call me by Monday, if you'd like to take advantage of this great offer.

HAVE YOU READ OUR TRAVEL BLOGS LATELY...

If you're not following us on Facebook, you may have missed some of our most recent travel info. For instance, our 10 Favourite Things about Paris, our excitement about going to Old Quebec City next Christmas or the SkyTeam Air Alliance or even the coolest travel shoe I've seen in years. Take a browse through our list of informative and fun blogs.

KEEP WATCHING OUR TOURS LIST...

This year we're gearing up to hit the road running with new tours to Africa (both in 2016 and 2017) as well as a refreshed English Lakes tour. Or why not explore the seaside shores of both France and Spain in May?

Visit our tours page regularly to see new additions as they are published.

Thank you to all of you for your support - we've grown and changed in the past year and are eager to help you see and experience the world!

Warmest regards,

Debbie Lloyd and team
